Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams®

Music by Shari A. Sarazin

Words by Erma Barrett

Oh Wisconsin, land of beauty, With your hillsides and your plains,
With your jackpine and your birch tree, And your oak of mighty frame.

Land of rivers, lakes and valleys, Land of warmth and winter snows,
Land of birds and beasts and humanity, Oh Wisconsin, I love you so.

*Oh Wisconsin, land of my dreams.
Oh Wisconsin, you're all I'll ever need.
A little heaven here on earth could you be?
Oh Wisconsin, land of my dreams.*

In the summer, golden grain fields, In the winter, drift of white snow,
In the springtime, robins singing, In the autumn, flaming colors show.

Oh I wonder who could wander,
Or who could want to drift for long,
Away from all your beauty,
All your sunshine, all your sweet song?

*Oh Wisconsin, land of my dreams.
Oh Wisconsin, you're all I'll ever need.
A little heaven here on earth could you be?
Oh Wisconsin, land of my dreams.*

*And when it's time, let my spirit run free
In Wisconsin, land of my dreams.*

RE: AB 21

Dear Representative Wieckert:

It is my understanding that AB 21 will be before your committee on May 30th which designates "Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams" as the Official State Ballad for Wisconsin.

I would like to express my support for passage of this bill. Having known Shari Sarazin and her family for many years, I know how much this means to them. Both the music and the words truly express the image of this great State, would stand as a strong symbol for Wisconsin, and serve as a lasting memory for Shari and her ancestors.

Your help in getting this passed is greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,

Dear Representative Wieckert,

I would like to convey my strong support for the initiative to designate the song "Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams" as the official state ballad.

I am very familiar with the song and believe that its origin as a poem is indeed an important piece of Wisconsin's heritage and history. I have believed this ever since I first heard this ballad, and have imposed upon the songwriter, Shari Serazin, on numerous occasions to perform it during military functions at our base. It has always received a strong and positive response.

I request that you favorably consider the creation of an official state ballad, and that "Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams" be selected.

Sincerely,

RE: Wisconsin State Ballad Bill – AB21

Dear Representative Wickert:

This letter is written to lend my full support to the above referenced bill to adopt "Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams" as the official Wisconsin State Ballad. This song is timeless in the beauty it portrays of our state. Having heard the song and seen the reactions of others as they listen, I know Wisconsin residents could stand proudly having it as our official song.

There is much historical value to this ballad. It was written as a poem in the 1920's by a Wisconsin woman, and has now been set to music by her granddaughter, also a Wisconsin woman. I know Shari Sarazin personally, and am very proud call her a resident and active member of our community.

This ballad touches people of all ages, either by invoking well loved memories of years gone by, or painting pictures for the 'mind's-eye' of the wonder and beauty of Wisconsin. In a day when people are searching for the beauty and tranquility nature provides, I truly believe these simple words and lovely melody can help draw new people to our state both as tourists and residents.

Again, I offer my full heart-felt support of Bill AB21 to add the ballad "Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams" to the list of Wisconsin's best-held, and protected treasures.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Wieckert,

This is a letter of support for bill "AB21" to designate the song "Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams" as the new official state ballad.

The background of this song is so very interesting. In the late 1920's, a farm girl from Juneau County, Erma Barrett, took out her journal and wrote a beautiful poem about Wisconsin. In October 1993, Shari Sarazin took her grandmother's heartfelt words and set them to music in a song she entitled, "Oh Wisconsin, Land Of My Dreams." The song is a story of one woman's feelings of the place she called home – Wisconsin – the land of her dreams.

This song, "Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams", would not replace "On Wisconsin" as our state song, but would be designated as our official state ballad.

Your support of this bill would be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Juneau County Economic Development Corp

RE: Official State of Wisconsin Ballad

Dear Mr. Wieckert:

This letter is in support of the song entitled, Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams, which is sung by Ms. Shari Sarazen. I strongly endorse this song and would encourage you to consider adopting it as the official ballad of the State of Wisconsin.

The song Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams was written by Shari Sarazen's grandmother in the early 1920's and was put to music by Ms. Sarazen in the mid 1990's. I have heard it sung at many government functions and public assemblies. I'm always impressed by people's positive reaction to Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams, a song that has instilled pride in our state.

I believe that Oh Wisconsin, Land of My Dreams is a song that when presented in any situation would create pride and a sense of dignity for residents of the State of Wisconsin. I strongly encourage its consideration as the official state ballad.

Sincerely,

Jay Mitchell
Superintendent of Schools
